"European Green Capital... What does that mean ?"

Thursday 1st April, from 1 to 2pm

The round table will be held in English and there will be simultaneous translation into French - Duration : 1 hour

On 8th October last year, the City of Grenoble was named “European Green Capital” for 2022 by the European Commission. The aim of this round table is to understand what this title represents for France and the European Commission, through the stories and experiences of the winning cities and the European institution.

Speakers:

- Milla Bruneau - City of Lahti - (event moderator)
- Simone Raskob - City of Essen
- Nataša Jazbinšek Seršen, Head of the Department "Environmental Protection" - Ville de Ljubljana
- Gilles Gantelet - European Commission Director (DG Environment)
