

3rd season of Cities in Transition, 14-15 September

Programme

The 48h of the New urban proximities

Day 1

Wednesday 14 September - In Grenoble, new urban proximities are created with the citizens

Meetings rooms:

Morning: La Plateforme Museum (9 Place de Verdun, Grenoble)

Afternoon: Villeneuve/Malherbe districts

9h15-9h30: Welcome

- "Grenoble, back to the future" Free exhibition (more information on our website)

9h45 – 10h15: Icebreaking

- Grenoble Ville Ouverte, Local, European and International Cooperation department of the City of Grenoble

10h15-10h45: Opening session

- Grenoble City Councilor in charge of Urban Planning

10h45-12h15: Panel of speakers: Sensitive approach to the "New urban proximities" (more information on our website) -Possibility to follow by videoconference

In collaboration with the CRESSON / UMR AAU-Ambiances Architectures Urbanités

- Nathalie Audas: Doctor in urban planning and development, Associate professor in spatial planning and urbanism, (IUT2 de Grenoble, Department of Social Careers) and researcher at CRESSON/AAU
Intervention: Children's sensitivities during the daily school-home journey
- Sylvie Laroche: State architect (research mention), doctor in architecture and researcher at CRESSON/AAU Intervention: The relationship between Nature -Urban.
- Rainer Kazig: Doctor in Geography, Research Fellow at Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique (CNRS) - CRESSON/
Intervention: Third places as a resource for inhabitants
- Théa Manola (Moderator): Researcher at CRESSON and associate professor at Grenoble HighSchool of Architecture.
- Alouna Nicolas (Moderator) : Student in Urban Planning and Spatial management, , course Architecture, Urbanism, Political Sciences (ENSAG, IUGA, SciencesPo Grenoble) and research intern at CRESSON/AAU

12h15-12.h45: Move to the Villeneuve/Malherbe districts

- Tram A. (The city of Grenoble will provide tickets)
 - From Verdun Tram stop to Arlequin Tram stop.

12h45-14h00: Lunch

- L'Arbre fruité restaurant
 - Funded by "Solidarité Femmes Miléna", association supporting women victims of domestic violence.

14h00-14h30: Coffee

- Café Baratym
 - Discovering the « Maison des Habitants (MDH) » Patio

14h30-15h15: Visit to Verlhac Park (collective gardens and urban spaces created with the inhabitants)

- Franck Quere
 - Manager of the Public space and Citizenship Department of the City of Grenoble

15h15-15h45: Discovering « Place aux enfants » projet in Malherbe school

- Elodie Goglio
 - Public spaces Development Mission of the City of Grenoble

15h45pm – 17h15: Participation in the "Chantier ouvert au public" at Malherbe school with local families.

- Public Space and Citizenship Department of the City of Grenoble

17h15 – 17h45: Friendship glass

Associated activities open to the public:

(La Platform Museum)

18h30-19h30: Conference

- More information to come

21h00-23h00: Sensitive walk on the issues of the City at night

- Grenoble Night project.

Day 2

Thursday 15 September - Sharing experiences from around the world. From the idea to the reality.

Meeting rooms:

Morning: La Plateforme Museum (Place de Verdun, Grenoble)

Lunch: Forecourt of Maison de l'International (1 Rue Hector Berlioz, Jardin de Ville)

Afternoon: Bastille

9h00-9h30 Welcome

- "Grenoble, back to the future" free exhibition (more information on our website)

9h30-11h30: Shared experiences

- Each participant will have the opportunity to share their projects and knowledge with the rest of the audience.

11h30-12h00: City centre projects discovery walk

With: Virginie Chirez, Public spaces Development Mission of the City of Grenoble

- Pedestrianisation
- « 0 Advertising »

12h00-13h00: Lunch on Maison de l'International.

- Catering Radi'selle,
 - Experts in eco-responsible, local and waste-free catering.

13h00-13h30: Move to the Bastille by cable car (The city of Grenoble provides the tickets)

13h30-14h30: Reading the territory from « Vauban terrace »: Urban issues seen from the sky.

- Grenoble Region Urban Planning Agency

14h30-16h15: Participative workshop: Process of commoning, or how we build together some new urban proximities

With:

Students of « Urbanism and Urban Project" course (Institute of Urbanism and Alpine Geography) and from "Architecture, Urbanism et Political Sciences" (Grenoble National School of Architecture, Urbanism Institute and Alpine Geography)

16h15-16h30: Closing

- Grenoble City Councilor in charge of Cities in Transitions

Associated activities open to the public:

(Place Grenette de Grenoble)

17h00: Climate Campaigners application official launch

- Entertainment, games and street art.

We have the power to act to tackle the climate challenge. But how? "Climate Campaigners" is an app that helps you take on challenges to change your lifestyle.